Florida Collegiate Boxing Conference Invitational at the Civic Center, December 1st

Dear Community Leader:

I am very excited to share with you that we, Renegade Boxing Club, at Florida State University, have been selected to host Florida's first nationally sanctioned intercollegiate boxing match since 1960. The event will be held at the Tallahassee-Leon County Civic Center on Saturday, December 1, 2012. Participating boxing clubs will include student athletes from Florida State University, University of Miami, University of Florida, Florida International University, Nova Southeastern University, and St. Thomas Aquinas College. The event is being showcased by the Florida Collegiate Boxing Conference (FCBC). The FCBC is a conglomeration of Florida college boxing teams, community boxing clubs, and professionals who are passionate about the sport of boxing and rekindling its positive influence on college athletes.

Both the FCBC and the revival of collegiate boxing are widely supported. Current and past world champions, title holders, Olympians, and rising talent alike will be at the event giving autographs, showing their support, and speaking on behalf of college boxing. Some of these include IBF Light Heavyweight Champion Tavoris Cloud, multiple world title holder Roy Jones Jr., former WBA Featherweight Champion Derrick Gainer, former unified WBA, IBF, and WBO Lightweight World Champion Nate Campbell, and more. The weekend before the fight, November 23rd – 25th, is the Florida vs. Florida State football game. We are hosting the head coaches from across the state, their athletes, and these professional boxers at a pep rally that weekend to stoke the already fervent college rivalries. This is a unique opportunity for everyone involved.

We cordially reach out to you with hopes of coordinating our efforts to improve our events and provide the best experience for Tallahassee's student athletes, and the community at-large. Rumors have created high expectations for this inaugural match. With your help we can host an entertaining and professional show representing Tallahassee and college boxing in the best possible light.

Thank you for your time and we look forward to working with you.

College boxing is back!

Cheers,

Francisco Thomas
